EXECUTIVES

JOHN MIDDLETON
Managing Partner

John S. Middleton has served as a limited partner of the Phillies ownership group since 1994. He holds a 48 percent stake in the franchise. Middleton was designated the team's control person and managing partner in November 2016. In this role, he is responsible to Major League Baseball for the operation of the club and for its compliance with the rules of baseball.

Middleton's primary focus for the organization – shared with the Buck family – is to return the franchise to its recent dominant past and to preserve the club's reputation as a world-class organization both on and off the field.

Middleton's philanthropic efforts primarily center on ending chronic homelessness in Philadelphia through Project HOME. He has also promoted career and technical education in the City of Philadelphia with the School District of Philadelphia, Drexel University, Philadelphia Youth Network and Philadelphia Academies.

In 2013, John and his wife Leigh received the prestigious Philadelphia Award for their philanthropic efforts in supporting education, eradicating homelessness and establishing workforce development projects.

As one of the Philadelphia region's most prominent leaders, Middleton was named to Philadelphia Business Journal's "Power List" in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

Born in Havertown, Pa., Middleton graduated magna cum laude from Amherst College in 1977 with a bachelor's degree in economics and from Harvard Business School in 1979 with a master's degree in business administration. He currently serves as a member of Amherst's board of trustees.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership formed in 1981. Tri-Play and Double Play are equal partners while David Montgomery and Pat Gillick own the remaining interests. No partner owns a majority of the team.

ANDY MACPHAIL
President

A member of one of baseball's most honored and respected families, Andy MacPhail was hired by the Phillies as team president on June 29, 2015, following a three-year sabbatical from the game. After a three-month observation process, he officially assumed the position on October 14, 2015.

Through his first two years as club president, MacPhail hired Matt Klentak as general manager and promoted David Buck to the position of executive vice president following the retirement of Michael Stiles during the 2017 season. He has also initiated aesthetic and technological upgrades to both Citizens Bank Park and Spectrum Field, the Phillies' spring training home in Clearwater, Fla., while overseeing a significant expansion of Baseball Operations capabilities.

Philadelphia is the second organization that MacPhail has overseen as club president. He was president and CEO of the Chicago Cubs for 12 years, from September of 1994 through the 2006 season. MacPhail's tenure with the Cubs also included a two-year stint as general manager, from July of 2000 to July of 2002. Chicago made it to the postseason twice during his time with the team, including 2003, when the club won its first postseason series since 1908. Prior to MacPhail's arrival, the Cubs had reached the postseason only twice in the previous 50 seasons. The Cubs had never drawn more than 2.4 million fans per year before MacPhail arrived, but drew over 3.0 million fans in each of his final three seasons with the club.

On June 20, 2007, MacPhail was named president of baseball operations for the Baltimore Orioles, a position he held through the 2011 season. In his role, he oversaw all aspects of major league, minor league and scouting operations for the ballclub, including trades for five eventual All-Stars and the signing and development of three more All-Stars, who served as the core of the 2014 AL East Division champions. MacPhail had assisted Major League Baseball with a variety of projects for several months before he joined the Orioles organization.

Prior to joining the Cubs, he served as executive vice president and general manager of the Minnesota Twins for nine seasons. In MacPhail's nine seasons as the Twins' GM, Minnesota won two World Series championships, in 1987 and 1991. When he was named the GM in 1985, at age 32, he was the youngest person to ever hold that position in the majors. He was honored by The Sporting News as its 1991 Major League Executive of the Year and also earned United Press International's American League Executive of the Year award after building a team that went from last place to World Champions in one season. In 2017, the Twins announced MacPhail as an inductee to the club's Hall of Fame.

MacPhail began his professional career in 1976 as business manager for the Cubs' Bradenton affiliate in the rookie-level Gulf Coast League. The following year he moved to Chicago as an assistant in the Cubs' park operations department. He joined the player development department a year later and eventually became assistant director of player development and scouting before leaving the Cubs in 1982 to become assistant general manager of the Houston Astros. He joined the Minnesota organization in August 1985 as vice president of player personnel and was promoted to executive vice president/general manager in November 1986.

His father, Lee MacPhail, was general manager of the Orioles from 1958 through 1965. Lee spent 45 years as a baseball executive and was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. As GM of the Orioles, he oversaw the team's rise from second division to contender in the early 1960s. He was also general manager of the New York Yankees, spent 10 seasons as the American League president and served as president of baseball's Player Relations Committee. Andy's grandfather, Larry MacPhail, was also elected to the Hall of Fame, in 1978. During his executive career, Larry helped pioneer night baseball as owner of the Cincinnati Reds in 1935, won a National League championship as owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1941 and won the World Series as owner of the New York Yankees in 1947.

Andy became the third member of the family to win The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award when he was honored in 1991; Larry earned the honors in 1939 and Lee was named in 1966.

MacPhail also served on MLB's negotiating committees during the 2002 and 2006 seasons, helping to work out new collective bargaining agreements with the MLB Players Association. Those were the first two agreements reached without a work stoppage in more than 30 years of labor negotiations between MLB and the players' union.

Born in Bronxville, N.Y., MacPhail is a 1976 graduate of Dickinson College. He and his wife Lark have two sons, William and Andrew, who are the fourth generation of MacPhails to work in Major League Baseball.

A 12-time NL All-Star during his career, Mike won three NL MVP Awards (1980, 1981 & 1986), six Silver Slugger Awards and 10 Gold Gloves, while also being named the MVP of the 1980 World Series.

MATT KLENTAK

Vice President & General Manager

Matt Klentak was named vice president & general manager of the Phillies on October 26, 2015, at 35 years old, making him the youngest GM in club history.

In 2016, the Phillies improved their win total by eight games (from 63 to 71 wins), which tied for the sixth-best improvement in MLB from 2015 to 2016. Notably, the starting pitchers collectively recorded an improvement of 8.1 WAR from 2015 to 2016, representing the most improved starting rotation in all of baseball over that time. The club also reduced the average age of the Opening Day roster from 29.6 in 2015 (the seventh-oldest) to 28.3 in 2016 (the third-youngest). This age reduction of 1.3 years ranked second in all of baseball.

In 2017, the club experienced significant improvements as the season progressed, finishing with a 37-36 record in its final 73 games, including a 15-13 mark in September. This improvement was driven principally by the performance of the team's offense, which scored nearly a full run per game more after the All-Star break (4.77) than before (3.82). This improvement also corresponded with a reduction in the average age of the team's roster from Opening Day (28.67) to August 31 (27.03).

The Phillies continued their youth movement in 2018 and opened the season with the youngest roster in all of baseball (26.9). Led by first-year manager Gabe Kapler, the team spent 34 days in first place through mid-August, and the overall 14-game improvement (from 66 wins to 80 wins) represented the fifth-best mark in Phillies franchise history. The team was led by a starting rotation that featured Aaron Nola and his third-place Cy Young Award performance, plus free agent acquisition and former Cy Young Award winner Jake Arrieta. Collectively, the starting rotation produced 15.5 WAR, which was the third-best mark in the National League. The bullpen, whose collective 4.1 WAR ranked fourth in the NL, received a major boost with the recall of Seranthony Domínguez in May, and the offense was powered by 25-year-old Rhys Hoskins and free agent signing Carlos Santana. Wilson Ramos, acquired in a late-July trade from the Rays, also had a significant impact on the offense down the stretch.

In player development, the Phillies' domestic minor league affiliates collectively posted a .549 winning percentage in 2018, with four affiliates qualifying for the playoffs. Phillies minor league pitchers posted a collective 3.49 ERA, which ranked third in professional baseball, and the organization's .981 fielding percentage was the best in baseball. The combined winning percentage of .553 from 2015-18 also represents the best mark in all of baseball. In June, the club selected third baseman Alec Bohm from Wichita State University with its first-round pick.

Heading into 2019, the Phillies spent their offseason seeking to improve both the team's run production and run prevention. The first move of the offseason was a trade with Seattle in early December in which the Phillies acquired two-time All-Star shortstop Jean Segura and relief pitchers Juan Nicasio and James Pazos in exchange for Santana and J.P. Crawford. The inclusion of Santana in the trade allows Hoskins to shift from left field to first base in 2019, which paved the way for the signing of outfielder and former NL MVP Andrew McCutchen later in December. The bullpen was further strengthened with the acquisition of José Álvarez from the Angels and the free agent signing of David Robertson. In February of this year, the Phillies acquired All-Star catcher J.T. Realmuto and signed All-Star right-hander Nola to a four-year contract with a club option for 2023. The club also promoted three players to the 40-man roster in November: SS Arquímedes Gamboa, RHP Édgar García and RHP Adonis Medina.

Before joining the Phillies, Matt spent four years (2012-15) as assistant GM of the Los Angeles Angels under GM Jerry Dipoto. During his tenure with the Angels, the club won the American League West Division title in 2014 and averaged 87 wins per season. Prior to his time with Los Angeles, Matt worked under Andy MacPhail as director of baseball operations for the Baltimore Orioles for four years (2008-11), where he assisted in scouting, player development, contract negotiations and the construction and management of the 40-man roster. While in Baltimore, MacPhail and Klentak acquired players who would play significant roles in helping the club reach the postseason in 2012, 2014 and 2016.

Matt's resume also includes working four years (2004-07) in Major League Baseball's Labor Relations Department, where he served as a primary contact for club personnel with respect to the interpretation of the Major League Rules, the Collective Bargaining Agreement and other contractual and financial industry practices. He was a key member of the MLB collective bargaining team that successfully negotiated a second consecutive CBA without a work stoppage in 2006. He also spent the 2003 season in the baseball operations department of the Colorado Rockies, where he gained experience in video and advance scouting, coordinated the inflow of all amateur scouting reports and authored several baseball and financial analyses throughout the season.

A native of Medfield, Mass., Matt earned an economics degree in 2002 from Dartmouth College, where he was a four-year baseball letterman, three-year starting shortstop and team captain his senior year. The Big Green won two Ivy League Red Rolfe Division championships (2000 and 2001) during his playing days. Matt and his wife, Lauren, have two young daughters.

2018 REVIEW

2018 SEASON RECAP

The Phillies went 80-82 (.494) in 2018, their first season reaching the 80-win plateau since 2012 when they went 81-81… Philadelphia reached sole posession of first place in the National League East for the first time since the end of the 2011 season, holding the top spot in the division for a total of 34 days… 2018 marked the Phillies' sixth consecutive season under .500 (73-89 in both 2013 & 2014, 63-99 in 2015, 71-91 in 2016 and 66-96 in 2017), which is their longest streak since they posted seven consecutive losing seasons from 1994-2000… However, Philadelphia entered play with a .500 record or better in 148 of its 162 games in 2018… The Phillies finished in 3rd place in the NL East, 10.0 games behind the Atlanta Braves… Overall, the club batted .234 with a .314 OBP, .393 SLG % and a combined .707 OPS… Phillies pitchers combined for a 4.14 ERA (665 ER, 1445.2 IP), which included a 4.12 ERA for the starters and a 4.17 mark for the bullpen.

PROGRESS IN THE PROCESS

The Phillies tallied 14 more wins than they did the previous season when they went 66-96… As for run differential, the Phillies improved by 41 runs from 2017 as they improved their run prevention by 54 runs… Philadelphia, who matched 2017's win total of 66 on August 15, didn't notch its 66th win of 2018 until the final day of the season, October 1 against the Mets, a difference of 47 days on the calendar.

CITIZENS BANK SPARK

Philadelphia finished the year with a 49-31 record (.613 win %) at Citizens Bank Park (not including their neutral site "home game" against the Mets in Williamsport), its best season at home since 2011 when they went 52-29 (.642 win %)… The club's .613 winning percentage at CBP in 2018 was its third-best record in the ballpark's 15 seasons, behind only 2011 and 2010… Philadelphia finished the year averaging 4.57 runs per game at home, which was its highest total since 2010 (4.88 RPG)… Despite their struggles on the road (31-50), the Phillies' 49-31 record in their home ballpark was third-best in the National League behind only the Brewers (51-30, .630 win %) and Cubs (51-31, .622 win %)… Per Elias, you have to go all the way back to 1955 to find the last time the Phils finished a season at least 15 games above .500 at home and 15 games under .500 on the road (46-31 at home, 31-46 on the road).

YOUTH GROUP

The Phillies, who began the season with the youngest roster in MLB, collected 982.0 innings from pitchers age 26 or younger, the second-highest total of any team in the majors (most: PIT, 1117.2 IP)… Philadelphia's 130 games started by pitchers 26 or younger led the majors (next: PIT, 122 GS)… Offensively, Philly's 3,919 plate appearances by players 26 or younger ranked 2nd in MLB to only the Cubs (3,989), and their 126 home runs were tied for the most with the Rangers.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE

Philadelphia finished 2018 with 582 walks, its most in a season since 2009, when the club had 589… Carlos Santana (110), César Hernández (95) and Rhys Hoskins (87) became just the third trio of Phillies with 85 or more walks in one season in franchise history and the first to do so since 2006 (Bobby Abreu – 91, Pat Burrell – 98, Ryan Howard – 108)… The Phils were the only team in MLB that had multiple players with 85 or more walks in 2018… There were only four other National League players with 85 walks or more: Bryce Harper (130), Joey Votto (108), Matt Carpenter (102) and Paul Goldschmidt (90)… Among all ML teams, the Phillies finished 2nd in pitches per plate appearance (4.01, best: LAD, 4.03) and 4th in walk rate (9.5%) & walks.

ALRIGHT, ALRIGHT, ALRIGHT

On July 26, left-hander Ranger Suárez made his major league debut in a start against the Cincinnati Reds at Great American Ball Park… Suárez's start broke a stretch of 267 straight games in which the Phillies threw a right-handed starter (last: Adam Morgan, 9/28/16 at ATL)… It was the longest such stretch in franchise history, breaking a 172-game right-handed starter streak from 5/26/1907-6/24/1908… It didn't sniff the longest major league streak, however, as the Dodgers once went 681 games without a left-handed starter during parts of six seasons from 1992-97.

AN INSTANT CLASSIC

On Sunday, August 19, the Phillies and Mets came together at BB&T Ballpark at Historic Bowman Field for the second Little League Classic game in Williamsport, Pa.… Prior to the game, players from both teams attended various Little League games and also made stops throughout the Little League International Complex… Scott Kingery (2006, Ahwatukee, Ariz.) was the lone Phillie to have played in the Little League World Series… It was their first neutral site game since Sept. 3, 1957 at Roosevelt Stadium in Jersey City, where they were the visiting team against the Brooklyn Dodgers and first as the home team since May 28, 1927 vs Boston Braves at Shibe Park (then home of the A's).

WHAT IF TOLD YOU…

In 2018, the Phillies had four different starting pitchers make at least 30 starts in a season for just the sixth time in franchise history (others: 2008, 2003, 1987, 1982 & 1968)… Jake Arrieta (31 GS), Aaron Nola (33 GS), Nick Pivetta (32 GS) and Vince Velasquez (30 GS) became the first quartet of Phillies starters to each make 30 turns through a rotation since 2008 when Cole Hamels and Jamie Moyer each started 33 games and Kyle Kendrick and Brett Myers both started 30.

FORMULA 50

On July 9, Philadelphia secured its 50th win of the season in its 89th game of the 2018 campaign… That was a 44-game improvement from 2017 when the Phillies won #50 in their 133rd game of the season… Only two other Phillies teams in the history of the franchise had a 44-game or better improvement from one season to the next at win #50… In 1993, the Phillies began 50-21 after going 50-68 in 1992 (+47) and in 1905, the Phillies began 50-37 after going 50-99 the year before in 1904 (+62)… The last major league team with a 44-game or better improvement at win #50 was the 2011 Pittsburgh Pirates (50-44), who went 50-98 the year prior in 2010 (+54)… July 9 marked the earliest a Phillies team won #50 since the 2011 team did so on June 28 with a record of 50-30.

HOW SWEEP IT IS

Philadelphia's eight sweeps in 2018 were its most since 2011 when they had 11 series sweeps… The Phillies tallied seven sweeps prior to the All-Star break, their most in the first half of a season since 2009 (also 7), per Elias.

EXTRA, EXTRA

The Phillies collected at least one extra-base hit in 110 consecutive games (4/4-8/8), which was the second-longest extra-base hit streak in franchise history, shy of only a 129-game streak from 1929-30… It was the longest extra-base hit streak in the majors in 2018 (next: MIN, 74 G, 5/30-8/20).

WHAT A RELIEF

The Phillies had nine separate players record at least one save in 2018 (Arano, Domínguez, García, Hunter, Morgan, Neris, Neshek, Ramos, Thompson), tying a franchise record (others: 2007, 1946, 1913)… Philadelphia's 68.8 save percentage (44-64) was the fourth-best mark in the National League.

HISTORY

THE MOORE & WHITE CO. PAT'D MACHINERY FRICTION CLUTCHES CUT OFF COUPLINGS ETC

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

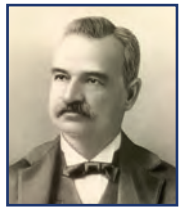

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

FIRST PHILLIES GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th Street and Columbia Avenue. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 2,055 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 148 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 15-9 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics, under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first president to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three future Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of du Pont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on Nov. 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Robin Roberts, Eddie Sawyer and Richie Ashburn

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

Paul Owens, Dallas Green and Ruly Carpenter

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976, but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two future Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

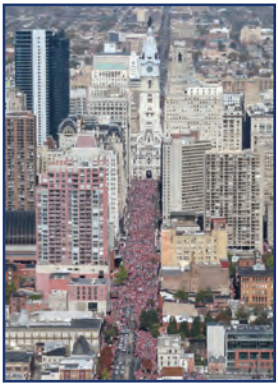

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies defeated the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on Sept. 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games remaining to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year, the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on Oct. 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, an estimated 2 million fans attended the parade down Broad Street. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

The Phillies recorded a franchise-record 102 victories in 2011 and for the second time in as many seasons, they led the majors in wins, a first in club history. That year also brought the team's run of consecutive division titles to five, tied with the Oakland Athletics for the third-longest streak in the Divisional Era (since 1969) among all major league teams, trailing only the Yankees (9) and Braves (14).

Fan support at Citizens Bank Park has been strong since the ballpark opened in 2004. Through their first 10 seasons at the ballpark, the club drew better than 3 million fans eight different times, including the record-setting mark of 3,680,718 in 2011. Highlighting that run was a streak of 257 consecutive regular-season sellouts at Citizens Bank Park from July 7, 2009 to Aug. 6, 2012.

From the 1950 pennant-winners to the great 1976-83 era to the recent 2007-11 dynasty, one theme has been common throughout: homegrown talent. Whether it was Richie Ashburn, Robin Roberts and Del Ennis or Mike Schmidt, Larry Bowa and Greg Luzinski or Chase Utley, Jimmy Rollins and Ryan Howard, the Phillies have largely had their greatest successes relying on their scouting and player development.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2018, a total of 2,055 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Smith (12) and Johnson (11).

Once again, the Phillies fell behind, but this time they didn't come back. Willie Aikens homered in each of the first two innings to set the pace for a 5-3 KC win. But something happened in the fourth inning that set the tone for the rest of the series. Reliever Dickie Noles brushed back George Brett with the count 0 and 2. Brett would only get three singles and Aikens one hit in the remaining two games.

Over 65,000 jammed Veterans Stadium looking for a Phillies win and their first World Championship. This time, the script didn't call for a comeback win. The Phillies grabbed a four-run lead before the Royals chased Steve Carlton with an eighth-inning run. Three more outs were all the Phillies and Tug McGraw needed. After Amos Otis struck out, a walk and two singles loaded the bases. Frank White lofted a foul pop in front of the Phillies dugout. Bob Boone and Pete Rose converged. The ball bounced off Boone's glove but the ever-alert Rose was there to make the catch. At 11:29 p.m. Veterans Stadium erupted when McGraw struck out Willie Wilson to win the World Series.

Jayson Werth followed with a single to drive in Howard with the go-ahead run. Scott Eyre and Brad Lidge came on in the bottom of the inning to close out the game and send the Phils to the NLCS for the second straight year.

(Yankees win series, 4 games to 2)

Game 1 – October 28

Chase Utley and Cliff Lee led the Phillies to a 6-1 win in the first-ever World Series game at new Yankee Stadium. Utley gave the Phils the early advantage with a pair of solo home runs off Yankees starter CC Sabathia, one in the third and the other in the sixth inning. Lee tied the Phillies postseason record with 10 strikeouts and threw his second complete game of the 2009 playoffs. Burnett (7.0 IP, 1 R). Matt Stairs' RBI single in the second inning gave the Phils a 1-0 lead, but solo homers by Mark Teixeira and Hideki Matsui put New York ahead for good. The Phillies jumped out to an early 3-0 lead off New York starter Andy Pettitte but could not hold on. 2010 NATIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION SERIES
PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS
(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 – October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the fifth inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the second on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' seventh consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the fifth inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the seventh, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

Chase Utley belted the club's first home run of the postseason off Cincinnati starter Johnny Cueto in the fifth to put the Phils ahead, 2-0. ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. Winners from each club are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978, Garry Maddox in 1986, and Jimmy Rollins shared the honor in 2014 with Paul Konerko. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken Jr. and Andrew McCutchen.

PAUL OWENS AWARD

Since 1986 the Phillies have honored the top player and pitcher in their minor league system. The award is named in honor of Paul Owens, who passed away in December 2003 after spending 48 years in the Phillies organization as a scout, farm director, general manager, manager and senior advisor.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman and then was named chairman emeritus in 2015.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball in the Phillies organization. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Left Field Plaza behind the scoreboard building. Toyota is the sponsor of the Wall of Fame.

Phillies executives, players, managers and coaches with four or more years of service are eligible.

With rare exception, all candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

GENERAL INFORMATION

TOM McCARTHY

Tom is in the 12th year of his second tour of duty with the Phillies doing television play-by-play. In his first stint with the club he spent five seasons (2001-05) as the host of the pre- and post-game radio shows, while also doing radio play-by-play. He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November of 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does NFL games for CBS, baseball for FOX, basketball and college football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL and college basketball games for Westwood One, after three years of doing the NFL with Sports USA Radio. Previously, he worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team (2004-09) and the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

In 2000, Tom earned a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award for his work on CN8 and is a two-time winner (2002 & 2004) of the Achievement in Radio Award for Best Local Sports Coverage. He also received the Radio/TV Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association in January 2007 and the Good Guy Award in 2009. He was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 2011 and had the radio booth at Trenton's Waterfront Park named after him. Additionally, he was named the 2013 Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Prior to rejoining the Phillies broadcast team, John spent 13 years with ESPN as both a color commentator on Sunday Night Baseball and a studio analyst for "Baseball Tonight." He also worked for FOX and co-hosted "The Best Damn Sports Show Period." In 2001, he was a hitting coach for the Phillies' double-A team in Reading, Pa., before transitioning to a role assisting the club with suite sales for Citizens Bank Park. John played 10 years in the major leagues, six of them with the Phillies, and was a member of the 1993 National League championship team when he posted career bests with a .316 batting average and a .430 on-base percentage. He made three consecutive All-Star teams (1991-93) as a Phillie, which included a memorable at-bat against future Hall of Famer Randy Johnson at the 1993 Midsummer Classic.

The San Diego Padres selected John in the third round of the 1981 draft. At the major league level, he played for the Padres (1986-89), Phillies (1989-94) and Chicago White Sox (1995). John finished his playing career with a .300 batting average, a .397 on-base percentage, 199 doubles, 100 home runs and 592 RBI in 1,200 games.

In 2003 John was selected to the All-Vet Team, which honored the best Phillies to play each position at Veterans Stadium, and he was inducted into the Phillies Wall of Fame in 2011.

John and his wife Melissa live in Naples, Fla., with their son, Kyle, and daughter, Keira.

BEN DAVIS

Ben Davis enters his fifth season in the booth after joining the Phillies broadcast team in February of 2015. He previously spent four years as an in-studio baseball analyst for NBC Sports Philadelphia and made occasional appearances on 94.1 WIP's morning show.

Ben transitioned to pitcher for the final three seasons (2008-10) of his professional career, spent with single-A Sarasota in the Cincinnati Reds organization and the Camden Riversharks of the independent Atlantic League.

Ben currently resides in West Chester, Pa., with his wife Megan and their four children.

SCOTT FRANZKE

Scott made his Phillies debut in 2006, when he was named the pre- and post-game host for Phillies radio broadcasts and did radio play-by-play in the middle innings. In 2007, he took over as the main play-by-play commentator for Phillies radio broadcasts, working with Larry Andersen. The duo was honored at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, winning for Best Live Sports Event Coverage in 2007 and 2008. Additionally, in 2017 they received the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting from the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association. Scott was also the winner of the 2010 and 2015 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

A 1994 graduate of Southern Methodist University (SMU) with a degree in broadcast journalism, Scott began his radio career as a talk show host with Prime Sports Radio, a national all-sports radio network based in Dallas. He worked for two seasons as the part-time pre- and post-game host for his hometown Texas Rangers (1997-98) before becoming the voice of the Kane County Cougars, a single-A affiliate of the Florida Marlins (1999-2001). In 2000, Scott covered the Summer Olympics in Sydney, Australia, for Sporting News Radio. He spent four years (2002-05) in his second stint with the Rangers as the full-time studio host of the pre- and post-game shows and fill-in play-by-play announcer, winning the 2003 Katie Award for Best Radio Play-by-Play Sportscast from the Press Club of Dallas.

Scott was born in Dallas, Texas. He lives in Philadelphia with his wife Lori, son Gus and twin daughters Loretta and June.

LARRY ANDERSEN

Larry is in his 22nd season serving as a color analyst for Phillies games, making him the club's longest-tenured current broadcaster. Last season, he chose to reduce his schedule to only call home games, but will do select road games in 2019.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category. In 2017, the duo was honored with the Bill Campbell Award for excellence in local broadcasting by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Hall of Famer Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak in 2011.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the seventh round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997). He also served as a guest instructor at Phillies spring training for five years (2013-17).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He and his wife Kristi live in Philadelphia.

Additionally, he has served as a part-time host on SportsRadio 94WIP, authored a book, Walking Together Forever: The Broad Street Bullies, Then and Now, and provided the call for college football, basketball and lacrosse during his career. Jim also won the 2011 Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, and this year was honored with the Bill Campbell Broadcasting Award by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association.

Jim is a 1985 graduate of Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism. He resides in Gloucester Township, N.J., with his wife Bernadette, daughter Deanna and son Johnny.

Bill established the Spanish Béisbol Network in 2001 and the company has continued to grow, adding Spanish broadcasting rights to the Philadelphia Eagles in 2012. CLUBHOUSES

Both clubhouses are on the Service Level (visiting, third base side; Phillies, first base side). The Service Level is one level below street level (Main Concourse). Shortly after entering the Staff & Media Entrance, there is a stairway on the right side that accesses the Service Level. Or, see ELEVATOR.

MEDIA INTERVIEW ROOM

The Media Interview Room is also on the Service Level located behind home plate between the two clubhouses. Press conferences, as well as the manager's postgame media conference, are held in this room.

PRESS BOX

The Press Box, including broadcast booths, Press Dining Room, Media Relations Workroom and library is located on the Hall of Fame Club Level behind home plate.

ELEVATOR

An elevator dedicated to the media is located behind home plate. After entering the ballpark at the Staff & Media Entrance, turn left on the Main Concourse and walk toward home plate. Look for the "Media Only" sign on the Main Concourse. This elevator will access the Service Level (clubhouses, Media Interview Room, field) and Press Box (Level 2).

STAIRWAY

A stairway is adjacent to the media elevator and can be used to access all levels.

FIELD ACCESS

Access to the field for all media is through a field level entrance adjacent to the visiting team's third base dugout. This runway can be accessed via a hallway located between the elevator and Media Interview Room on the Service Level. Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.

PHOTO WORKROOM

The Photo Workroom is located on the Service Level behind home plate in the hallway that leads to the third base field entrance. Still photographers have field level positions at the outfield end of both the third base and first base dugouts.

MEDIA RELATIONS WORKROOM

Located behind the broadcast booths is a Media Relations Workroom that contains a fax machine, copier and supplies, plus a workstation for the visiting PR representative. All media notes will be reproduced in this room pre-game. A complete baseball library providing numerous publications for research purposes is located adjacent to the Workroom. See a Baseball Communications representative for access to the Media Relations Workroom and library. Please keep in mind the Media Relations Workroom is to be used for reference purposes only.

CREDENTIALS

Working press credentials or Baseball Writers' Association of America credentials are required in order to gain access to the ballpark and other locations (field, clubhouses, Media Interview Room, Press Box and Press Dining Room). Photographer credentials provide access to the field, Press Dining Room, Media Interview Room, Photo Workroom and field level photo positions.

LOST CREDENTIALS

Those members of the media who lose a Phillies credential will be asked to submit a $25 check to The Phillies, prior to being issued a new credential.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Both clubhouses open at 3:35 p.m. (for 7:05 p.m. games) in accordance with Major League Baseball regulations. The Phillies clubhouse is closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice. For day games, the clubhouse is also closed when the team is on the field taking batting practice and/or 45 minutes prior to game time. Media needing interviews when the clubhouse is not open should make arrangements with a Baseball Communications representative.

Members of the media are welcome when the clubhouses are open. Please keep in mind the clubhouse is open for media business purposes, not for lounging or socialization. Both teams appreciate your cooperation.

Cell phones: According to a Major League Baseball directive, members of the media must have cell phones turned off upon entering the clubhouse. Absolutely no transmitting (phone calls/texts/e-mails/social media updates) is allowed in the clubhouse.

MANAGER AVAILABILITY

The manager is available following every Phillies home game in the Media Interview Room. For 7:05 p.m. games, the manager is available at 4:00 p.m. There is no formal pregame availability on day games.

PRESS BOX SEATING

Some seats in the three-row Press Box are permanently assigned. Check the seating diagram posted daily in the Press Box area. Radio and TV media members occupy the first base end of the Press Box; print media the home plate end. Please keep in mind the Press Box is a working area, not a spectator location. Children and friends are prohibited.

MEDIA DRESS CODE

In accordance with a MLB directive, media covering games and MLB events are asked to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and the Phillies, as well as MLB, expect members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to follow these guidelines:

- Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in the press area
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
 - ★ Sheer or see-through clothing
 - ★ Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
 - ★ Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
 - ★ Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

INTERNET/PHONE

Wireless internet is available throughout the press box area and in the photo workroom. There is an ample supply of complimentary high-speed ethernet lines available in the Press Box as well as in the Photo Workroom. If needed, ethernet cables are available to purchase on-site for $10 (cash only) at each home game. There is also an ample supply of pool phones available in the Press Box. If you would like to purchase your own dedicated private line in the Press Box or Photo Workroom, analog lines are available to purchase for an annual fee of $150 per line (restricted to credit card, collect, calling card, or 800 number calls).

PRESS DINING ROOM

Located behind the Press Box, the Press Dining Room opens one and a half hours prior to game time. The meal price is $10, and food is served until 30 minutes after the start of the game. The beverage area remains open during the game and postgame. Children and friends are prohibited.

SMOKING

Smoking is not permitted inside Citizens Bank Park.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Through both Phillies Charities, Inc. and the club's ongoing community outreach efforts, the Phillies have a continued presence in the community throughout the year.

Phillies Charities, Inc. is the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, as well as areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Continued fan support enables fundraisers, including the Phantastic Auction, 50/50 Drawing, Phillies Charities 5K and many memorabilia auctions, to contribute largely to a Phillies Charities Grant Fund. Grants are awarded on a regular basis to primarily local organizations serving a wide variety of needs. In 2018, more than $2 million was awarded.

Since 1984, when the ALS Association Greater Philadelphia Chapter became the team's primary charity, the Phillies have raised over $18 million for the fight against ALS, the devastating, always-fatal, progressive neuromuscular disorder. In 2018, the Phillies Phestival, an annual event to help raise funds for patient services and research, raised $725,050.

Each year, the Phillies provide children with the opportunity to play baseball and softball throughout the Delaware Valley by providing local leagues with uniforms and equipment, along with other resources. Over 5,000 deserving children, ages 5-18, participate in the RBI program. The Jr. RBI League (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities), sponsored by Citizens Bank, is for kids 12 years and under and focuses on the fundamentals of the game. The RBI League, sponsored by Turkey Hill Dairy, is for kids 13 to 18 years of age and continues to focus on baseball and softball instruction, but also has a competitive nature.

The Phillies MLB Urban Youth Academy, sponsored in part by the local Chevrolet dealers, provides free, year-round instruction to RBI participants in Philadelphia through both the baseball and softball fields at FDR Park and the Ryan Howard Training Center, which is located at the Marian Anderson Recreation Center. The state-of-the-art, 7,500-square-foot indoor training center is equipped with four retractable batting cages and also includes space for fitness training and educational and vocational programs.

The Phillies Wives are committed to giving back to support local charities. Each year, Phillies Wives serve on the board of Phillies Charities, Inc. and represent the Phillies on charitable projects or fundraisers. They meet with ALS patients and participate in the Phillies Phestival every year. Over the past 12 years, the Phillies Wives have raised over $316,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA through their Save a Pet at the Park event and charity pet calendars. In 2018, they raised $20,030 for the grant fund through their Pro-Pack auction held during games and via the MLB Ballpark App. In 2017, they teamed up with Phillies fans and Liberty USO to donate school supplies to local military children.

The Phillies host a variety of educational and literacy programs for the local community. Phanatic About Reading, presented by Xfinity, encourages students in grades Pre-K through eighth to read for a minimum of 15 minutes per day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. Phillies Phitness, presented by GIANT, encourages children of all ages to start on the path to a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Through a partnership with the City of Philadelphia Parks & Recreation Department, Phillies Phundamentals, an after-school/summer camp program for children 6-12 years old, uses baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. The All-Star Students contest recognizes students who went above and beyond during the school year. Shred Hate, a multi-faceted bullying prevention program from ESPN, MLB, and X Games that seeks to eliminate bullying by encouraging kids to choose kindness, is being administered at 11 schools within the School District of Philadelphia during the 2018-2019 school year. The work of area educators is highlighted annually through Teacher Appreciation Night, powered by Constellation. The Phillies celebrate the science of baseball during the annual Philadelphia Science Festival Day. Citizens Bank Weather Education Day, presented by NBC10 First Alert Weather, an educational experience focused on weather, is enjoyed by thousands of children each year.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

RBI participants run drills during a Play Ball Weekend clinic.

Rhys Hoskins and the Phanatic entertain the crowd at a Phanatic About Reading assembly.

Committed to honoring all the men and women who have served or continue to serve our country, the Phillies donated 65,000 tickets to members of the military and their families in 2018. Members of the military, veterans and their guests receive a discounted ticket offer on select Phillies games through GovX. Throughout each season, military personnel and their families are recognized through pregame salutes and player meet-and-greets.

The Red Goes Green sustainability initiative launched in 2008. For the 12th straight calendar year, the Phillies have purchased over 20 million kilowatt-hours of Renewable Energy Certificates, matching 100% of electricity usage with wind and solar generation. Through Home Runs for Trees, a partnership with PGW and the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, over 1,000 trees have been planted in the Delaware Valley. Food waste from Phillies kitchens is donated to W.B. Saul High School's "Henry Got Compost" program. In recognition of Earth Day, front office members volunteer each year at a cleanup at FDR Park.

Phans Feeding Families, the hunger relief partnership between the Phillies, sponsors and fans, has generated more than $488,000 and provided more than 1 million meals through Philabundance over the past eight years.

The Phillies Ballgirls act as community ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field. The Ballgirls make hundreds of appearances in the community and act as captains of the Red Goes Green Team, presented by Waste Management, at each home game. They host a Christmas in July Toy Drive each year, with toys being donated to organizations throughout the community during the holiday season, while also engaging with youth softball players through clinics.

Each season, the Phillies partner with Major League Baseball in supporting a variety of initiatives, including Childhood Cancer Awareness, Father's Day, Hispanic Heritage Month, Independence Day, Jackie Robinson Day, Memorial Day, Mother's Day, Play Ball Weekend, Roberto Clemente Day and September 11th Remembrance.

The annual Season of Giving allows the Phillies to continue outreach efforts during the offseason through events such as the Bethesda Project Holiday Luncheon, Breakfast with the Phanatic, Clubhouse Sleepover for local children's hospitals, Ford PAL Holiday Party, Giving Drive at Valley Youth House and the Senior Holiday Celebration.

During a visit to Nemours/Alfred I. duPont Hospital for Children, Gabe Kapler spends time getting to know a patient.

Introduced in 2018, the Phillies Give Back program offers volunteer opportunities and encourages members of the front office to get involved in the local community. One volunteer event is held each month.

The Phillies celebrate the rich cultural traditions that make up Philadelphia and its many diverse communities. Through theme nights, participation, outreach and support, the organization joins in the effort to bring fans from every walk of life together.

Our work in the community would not be possible without the dedication and support of the many partners and fans who support our mission.

PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6-6; WT: 300
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created by the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot evolved and is celebrated as part of a permanent exhibit in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Over the years, various national media outlets have ranked the Phanatic as the No. 1 sports mascot.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, in recent years he stepped into prime time with appearances on the NBC television show 30 Rock and ABC's "The Goldbergs." He's also visited the sets of NBC's "Today," "Good Morning America," "CBS This Morning," and ESPN's "SportsCenter" and "College GameDay." A frequent flyer, the Phanatic has logged miles to Japan, Australia, Mexico and Europe and most notably journeyed to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands.

Dave Raymond, a graduate of the University of Delaware, was the original performer in costume and spent 16 years entertaining as the Phanatic. The current Phanatic, Tom Burgoyne, began his fanatical career in 1989 as Raymond's backup, later joining the Phillies marketing department in 1990. Over the course of his tenure, Tom has written two Phillies books, 16 children's books and a business/leadership book called Pheel the Love. In addition, he's developed a reading program (Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read at least 15 minutes every day.

Tom is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)… A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

SPECTRUM FIELD

"If there is a gold standard among Grapefruit League ballparks, it is Clearwater's Spectrum Field (formerly Bright House Field). It is the standard by which older ballparks are evaluated and new ballparks are planned. It's not the biggest or the most historic, but on virtually every level it's the nicest, and it works very well on a functional level: you never, ever feel crushed or crowded, even when you're queuing up for parking or an entrance to the ballpark. We really can't think of a better time at a spring training game than to spend the afternoon at Spectrum Field." – springtrainingonline.com

Fans certainly have enjoyed spending the afternoon at Spectrum Field since it first opened in 2004. As the Phillies entered their 16th spring at their Clearwater home, total attendance stood at 1,909,134.

Of that total, 113,037 were there in the first year, easily breaking the spring record (94,811 in 1994) at Jack Russell Memorial Stadium, where the Phillies trained starting in 1955. Attendance for the first year there was a meager 16,832.

The Phillies first moved to Clearwater in 1947, replacing the Cleveland Indians who moved to Tucson, Ariz. Athletic Field, with a seating capacity of 3,000, was their first home. The previous spring, the Phillies trained in Miami Beach, Fla. Because of World War II travel restrictions, the Phillies trained close to home in 1943 (Hershey, Pa.) and 1944-45 (Wilmington, Del.).

Only the Detroit Tigers have been in a Florida location longer, holding camp in Lakeland since 1934. The Tigers clobbered the Phillies, 13-1, in their first Clearwater game, March 11, 1947, before a paid crowd of 1,766 and lost the first game at Jack Russell Stadium, 4-2, on March 10, 1955, before 4,209 fans.

In 2004, the Phillies also opened a new home in Philadelphia, Citizens Bank Park. No other club ever unveiled two ballparks in the same year.
